The Power of Drawing!

Young Rembrandts

classes for kids

at St. Valentine Catholic School

This fall begins with a rendering of a stylized tarantula and continues with a study of Van Gogh's unique style of sunflowers. Each student will create a unique scarecrow and a tasty still life of taffy apples - proving that shading and color combinations can please anyone's sweet tooth! A favorite, Emoji's, return in a collage format. All budding artists continue to have fun learning foundational skills that will last a lifetime!

Classes held for grades K-6
Wednesdays
3:40 - 4:40 pm
9/26/2018 - 11/7/2018
No class on 10/31
